Health studies in France
(maieutics, medicine, dentistry and pharmacy)

WHICH STUDIES ARE OFFERED BY UNIVERSITIES ?

a « License » with a "health access" option L.AS	A special « health access » pathway with an option in an other subject PASS
The student chooses the degree that best corresponds to his or her projects and strengths (literature, law, biology, management, economics, etc.) which offers a "health access" option for the subject or subjects of interest (maieutics, medicine, medicine, dentistry or pharmacy)	The student chooses the specific health path (PASS) and an option that corresponds to his or her strengths and other possible projects (example: law option, biology option, language option...)
Within this degree, he follows courses related to the "health access" option	These courses are organized in universities with health faculties
Within this degree, he follows courses related to the "health access" option	These courses are organized in universities with health faculties
A/ if he/she validates his/her first year, he/she can apply in the health field(s) of interest ➔ he is admitted in the 2nd year in the field of study which interests him ➔ he continues in the 2nd year of his bachelor's degree and if he wishes, he applies again for health studies after at least one additional year	A/ if he/she is validating his/her first year, he/she is a candidate for health studies (maieutics, medicine, dentistry or pharmacy) ➔ he is admitted in the 2nd year in the field of study which interests him ➔ he continues in the 2nd year of his bachelor's degree and if he wishes, he applies again for health studies after at least one additional year ➔
B/ if he does not validate his first year of bachelor's degree, he cannot apply for health studies ➔ he can repeat his first year ➔ he has to reorient itself via parcoursup	B/ if he does not validate his first year of bachelor's degree, he cannot apply for health studies neither repeat his first year ➔ he has to reorient itself via parcoursup